

To foster economic growth and relieve stress on American families, Congress should permanently repeal the Death Tax. The Death Tax poses a serious threat to the American small business. Because of the Death Tax, many family businesses do not survive into the second generation and more fail by the third. That is why I am a co-sponsor of H.R. 8, the Death Tax Repeal Permanency Act of 2005

.